Fundacion Izquierda – The Last Four Months

I. Crisis in Life

A crisis I do not believe in, but it is going on, I will transform this to an artistic life and free it.

I am free.

II. Curation Crisis

Now three months – first I am not finding it perfection, an artistic problem. But also then Averroes says divine things, now I mean Averroes is about poverty. I mean birds, birds I see while I go by a taxi.

III. Film Method

Film is about method. I mean with Rainer Werner Fassbinder, it is about method. Not what I think, something like long poetic scenes. I mean make this method. Make it about method.

IV. Marx Finally

I mean deconstruction and Japan. I mean Marx is about this. He is about in fact films with a series of cameras and a conversation – and now my cure is here.

V. Glamorous

G, l, a, m – o, r, o, u, s.

Dancing in the room.
